

English Language Requirements

Applicants for whom English is a second language must submit the results of one of the following standardized tests. If you completed your undergraduate studies at an English-speaking university this requirement may be waived.

TOEFL Exam

Contemporary Performance Graduate Program Applicants	All Other Graduate Program Applicants
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • iBT (internet-based): 80 • computer-based: 213 • paper-based: 550 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • iBT (internet-based): 100 • computer-based: 250 • paper-based: 600

Test results must be within two years of starting the graduate program. Read more about the TOEFL exam.

IELTS Exam

Contemporary Performance Graduate Program Applicants	All Other Graduate Program Applicants
6.5 (or higher)	7.5 (or higher)

Test results must be within two years of starting the graduate program. Read more about the IELTS exam.

Cambridge English Language Exams

Contemporary Performance Graduate Program Applicants	All Other Graduate Program Applicants
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cambridge English: First (FCE) • Cambridge English: Business Vantage (BEC Vantage) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE) • Cambridge English: Business Higher (BEC Higher)

Test results must be within two years of starting the graduate program. Read more about Cambridge English exams.

Students who have taken other official English language exams may contact the Office of Graduate Admissions to be evaluated on a case by case basis.